

Try out some juicy questions during today's play!

Step 1: Look for a sign that your explorer is ready for a conversation.

For example, if they are open to chatting, they might:

- Talk to you first!
- Look up and make eye contact.
- Hand you something to engage you.

Step 2: Try out some of these “juicy questions” to give kids wonderful practice with thinking, talking and expressing:

- Tell me about what you are making/what you made.
- Wow! How does that (thing you are holding) look, smell, sound, feel?
- Can you show/tell me how you made that?
- What other dishes could we make for our cookout? What other materials could we use?

TINKERGARTEN

© 2023 Highlights for Children, Inc.

Try out some juicy questions during today's play!

Step 1: Look for a sign that your explorer is ready for a conversation.

For example, if they are open to chatting, they might:

- Talk to you first!
- Look up and make eye contact.
- Hand you something to engage you.

Step 2: Try out some of these “juicy questions” to give kids wonderful practice with thinking, talking and expressing:

- Tell me about what you are making/what you made.
- Wow! How does that (thing you are holding) look, smell, sound, feel?
- Can you show/tell me how you made that?
- What other dishes could we make for our cookout? What other materials could we use?

TINKERGARTEN

© 2023 Highlights for Children, Inc.